

The Daily Gazetteer.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 15. 1735.

No. 145.

Monday arrived a Mail from France, and another from Flanders.

Petersburg, November 24.

HIS Court is not a little pleased with the Preliminaries sign'd at Vienna, on account of the Glory and Satisfaction it gives them, to see that Prince reigning in Poland whom the House of Bourbon united, have tried in vain to drive out of the Kingdom.

The Bahaw from Turkey, must be on the Road hither, is not yet arriv'd, so we can know nothing certain as to Peace or War the Porte, till we see what Proposals he brings him, and what Satisfaction they are inclin'd to to her Czarian Majesty. Mean time the Preparations for War are continued, and no longer ago than today, we learn'd by a Courier from Moscow, that Majesty's Order 600 Pieces of Cannon and 400 of Ammunition were sent thence for Pultowa. Peterhof the new Fort built on the Turkish Frontier against Bender. We learn'd at the same time, 6000 Men of the Garison of Moscow, and several Regiments from the Northern Provinces of the Empire, march'd towards the Frontiers of Turkey. Letters from Pultowa affirm also, that they have a great Quantity of Pick Axes, &c. from thence Army which the Count de Munich is mustering the Banks of the Borysthene.

Nov. 22. Nobody can conceive what a our new Court is in. Couriers and Expresses flying up and down continually. Vessels are sent in all our Harbours, which, 'tis said, are to Sicily to take some Forces on board for Abruzzo. Ammunition are sent to all the fortified and Troops are taken out of such where they are best spared, and sent to the Camp at Chieti in 1730, from whence Troops will either be detach'd the Relief of the Duke de Montemar, or, by the of War, the Duke may be obliged to retire with his Army, which 'tis certain is very much reduc'd, if not reduced to one Half of what it was by Desertion and Distempers.

The Court nevertheless is not forgetful of their to the Ladies, and particularly to the Princesses, who was some time ago banished to Salerno. Calo de Mauro, and the Scribe della Roua, were with secret Orders from Montelegrè, the of State, and a Party of 50 Soldiers, who surrounded the House, Don Carlos makes his the Lady, tells her his Orders to search and off all her Papers, and while he keeps her Com the Scribe executes those Orders to a Tittle. odious Circumstances attending this Affair, con not a little to put the People out of Humour, the Accommodation of France with the Emperor increase their Disgusts.

Nov. 26. We are, at this very Juncture, sent all the Evils that 'tis possible for a Republick to from a too powerful Family; and we plainly see, the Man who is capable of sacrificing the Good of his Country to the Interests of himself or family in minuter Affairs, will not blush to make the Sacrifice in Things of the utmost Importance. Belli Family having, in vain, solicited that the their Kinman may be put off for two Months in order to lessen the Scandal of it, now make all their Interest to put off, from one Day to another the Departure of Signior Rivarola, who is to Pinelli in his Post: To do this with the better this Day they object against the Salary he wants; while they cavil at the Authority with which he is sell'd, and, in short, they start one Difficulty or every Day, in hopes of gaining, by Chicanry, what they cannot obtain by other Means. These infamous Wiles are as plain as the Sun at day; and yet Avarice and Ambition find Votes numerous, and those more hearty, to support interests than true Patriotism does. During these Disputes, the Rebels in the Island of Corsica themselves daily.

Paris, Dec. 21. The Queen, who is entered into the seventh Month of her Pregnancy, continues to enjoy perfect Health. — During the Court's Residence at Marly, the Ditches of the Castle of Versailles are to be cleaned, and, in the mean time, the Dauphin and the Princesses his Sisters, are to go to the Castle of Meudon. The Dauphin cannot be put under the Care of his Governor, &c. till some time after New Year's-day, because their Apartments will not be ready. — The Marquis de Croissy, a Brigadier, is returned hither from Lombardy; from whence the Duke de Crusol, another Brigadier, is also soon expected. — The Domestick who assassinated him who formerly stole the King's Plate, was, on the 16th, broke alive upon the Wheel. — The Count de Montijo, the Spanish Ambassador, is expected here the Beginning of next Month, before he goes to London, having left almost all his Officers and Domesticks here.

Letters of the 6th from Madrid say, that the Infante Don Philip, Commander of the Order of the Knights of St. Jago, created his Brother, the Infante Don Lewis, a Knight of that Order, at the Escorial, on the 3d Instant, in Presence of their Catholick Majesties and the whole Court.

They write from Turin, that the King of Sardinia has made a Present of 200 Louis d'ors to the Courier who brought him the Preliminaries of Peace; but we don't hear that the Queen of Spain was so generous upon that Occasion, tho' 'tis certain that his Sardinian Majesty is no better pleased than her Catholick Majesty, with the Conduct of our Court.

Hague, Dec. 20. N. S. The States of Holland are still assembled. The Conferences which have been held during this Assembly about the Promotion of General Officers are continued, the Deputies of the respective Provinces having not yet come to any Agreement thereupon. Three Days ago the Marquis de Fenelon received a Courier from his Court, and it is believed that he and the Imperial Minister Count d'Ulfeld will communicate, in a few Days, to the States in Form, the Preliminaries of the Treaty of Peace between the Emperor and the most Christian King.

 not be under any Concern; but desired he would inform
